One of the new features to SeaScouts.us is user registration. When you login as a registered user you have access to a variety of pretty awesome features -

- Newsletter subscription management
- Article submission (yes, you can submit your own articles!)
- Web link submission
- User lists
- and more....

In the near future, your information will also be linked to -

- Ships' Registry
- Event registration and payment portal
- Online education portal
- and more....

Registration is FREE and only takes a minute. Please register today and become part of the SeaScouts.us community!
